President's Day!

This week we celebrated the leaders of our country and thanked them in our own way for their service. It is also important to share with our kids that we are the examples of how to behave in life, not our leaders. In light of the upcoming Lenten season, our personal sacrifices for the good of others will shine over everything that's wrong in the world.

God Bless,

Mr. LesCallett

Prayers for the Cota Family
